If you would like some more information about Tourette Syndrome, you can visit this website by scanning the QR code.

I have Tourette Syndrome. This is a medical condition which means I make movements and noises that I can't help. Please don't tell me to stop, as this often makes them worse. I would be grateful for your understanding and empathy. If you would like some more information about Tourette Syndrome, you can visit this website by scanning the QR code.
