Mission Statement

The Children's Hospital School seeks to minimise the interruption and disruption to children's and young people's education so that academic progress and an interest in learning will continue as far as medical circumstances permit. In order to fulfil this, we aim to:

- Provide personalised, challenging, enjoyable and innovative learning opportunities.
- Make learning an integral part of children and young people's stay in hospital
- Foster values of friendship and determination
- Prepare and empower pupils in the present and for the future
- Support, nurture and value families and carers.

This Publication Scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL SCHOOL AT GOSH & UCH's Publication Scheme under the Freedom of Information Act

Appendix A: Further Information about Freedom of Information Requests

How do I make a Freedom Information Request?

We aim to publish as much information as possible on our school website at <http://www.gosh.camden.sch.uk> so it is a good idea to check our website first before making your Freedom of Information request.

If the information is not available on our website, please send your information request by email to: head@gosh.camden.sch.uk

by post to: The Head Teacher
The Children's Hospital School at GOSH & UCH
Great Ormond Street NHS Trust
Great Ormond Street
London WC1N 3JH

If you need help or advice about making your information request please phone the school on 020 7813 8269

To help us process requests quickly, any correspondence should be clearly marked "Publication Scheme Request".

How will I receive the information?

If the information is not available on our website, we will endeavour to email it to you or send you a hard copy. Providing a hard copy usually involves a charge for the copying and postage which will be calculated in accordance with the charging schedule (see below: How much does it cost?)

In exceptional circumstances, some information may be available only by viewing in person. We will arrange an appointment for you to view the information within a reasonable timescale. We will provide the information in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required.

We will comply with any obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

What can I ask about?

You can ask about anything. We aim to be transparent but, under the Freedom of Information Act we can withhold certain information, for instance:

- where the disclosure is protected by law
- if the information is in draft form
- if the information is no longer readily available/accessible as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage

How much does it cost?

In most instances requests are free. However, if you are requesting large amounts of information that require lots of printing, photocopying or formatting then we are allowed to make a small charge to cover these costs as well as any postage and packaging.

If a charge is to be made, we will let you know the amount of the payment before the information is provided. We may ask you to pay before we send you the information.

Charging Schedule
