

13th Paediatric Pain Symposium

Friday 16th November The road from acute to chronic pain

09:00 – 09:25	Coffee and Registration
09:25 – 09:30	Welcome and Introduction	Glyn Williams – Consultant Pain Control Service GOSH
09:30 – 10:00	Mechanisms of acute pain: a case study	Mark Thomas - Consultant Anaesthetist GOSH
10:00 – 10:30	Pharmacology of acute pain management	David Mason – Consultant Anaesthetist John Radcliffe Hospital Oxford
10:30 – 10:50	Pain Assessment	Jude Middleton – Lead CNS Pain Service GOSH
10:50 – 11:15	BREAK, TEA & COFFEE
11:15 – 11:35	Patient Reported Outcome tools (PROMS)	Jane McNicholas – Psychologist GOSH
11:35 – 12:05	Pain neurophysiology: assessing and managing risk factors for persistent post op pain	Suellen Walker - Reader in Pain Medicine, UCL & GOSH & Judy Peters – Research Nurse GOSH
12:05 – 12:35	Chronic pain: management & pharmacology	Glyn Williams - Consultant Pain Control Service GOSH
12:35 – 13:00	Question & Answers
13:00 – 14:00	LUNCH, TEA & COFFEE
14:05 – 15:05	Breakout Lecture 1	See overleaf
15:15 – 16:15	Breakout Lecture 2	See overleaf
16:20 – 16:50	Recent developments in paediatric pain nursing education and potential goals for the future	Professor Alison Twycross – Deputy dean & Lead Nurse, School of Health & Social Care LSBU
16:50 – 17:00	Closing comments	Glyn Williams - Consultant Pain Control Service GOSH

Breakout Lectures

Choose 2 breakout lectures to attend - all sessions will run twice.

Sign-up sheets will be available at registration on the day.

1)	Understanding pain education for chronic pain management	Suzanne Lilley – CNS, Kirsty Keen CNS, Kim Noar – Physiotherapist & Dilini Rajapakse – Consultant in Palliative Care & Pain Management
2)	Role of psychologist in pain management Hypnotherapy for procedural pain	Ewa Nowotny - Psychologist TBC
3)	Procedural Pain Management	Becky Saul CNS & Reema Nandi – Consultant Anaesthetist
4)	Managing post-operative pain at home	Glyn Williams - Consultant Pain Control Service & Jude Middleton – Lead CNS