

Additional Education Resources - May 2020

There have been many additions and developments in online learning opportunities for children since the Easter break.

1. Support and guidance from the Department for Education (DfE)

The DfE has produced a comprehensive guide to resources for parents, which is being updated regularly and includes suggestions for working with children with SEND. It can be accessed here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-online-education-resources/coronavirus-covid-19-list-of-online-education-resources-for-home-education>

2. Other websites

Below is an additional list of excellent online learning opportunities for children and young people, including a wonderful resource from Great Ormond Street's very own GOSH Arts team.

- BBC Bitesize Daily - all key stages <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/dailylessons>
- The Oak National Academy - Reception to Year 10
<https://www.thenational.academy>
- GOSH Art Trail - ask your Playworker for more details or access online:
<https://www.gosh.nhs.uk/wards-and-departments/departments/gosh-arts/resources/lets-look-art-bit-differently>

3. Online Safety

As children spend increased time online throughout this period, it is more important than ever that we take steps to ensure their safety in the online world.

The NSPCC offers clear and easy to navigate advice for parents and carers -

<https://www.nspcc.org.uk/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/talking-child-online-safety/>

Think U know is an excellent resource for both children and adults -

<https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk>