| ASHWORTH, Michael       | Consultant, Histopathology          | I pay my private earnings into a private company known as 'Repath' of which I am a director. The income is derived entirely from the International Private Patients Wing, which is managed by the NHS. The fees are for expert opinion. The Company is essentially a handling mechanism for the consultants' private fees. The accounts are audited and subjected to company tax. The fees are used to pay for expenses in the Histopathology Department, e.g. training fees for non-medical staff. The remainder is paid to the consultants as annual dividends. I declare these earnings in my own income tax return. This is a longstanding arrangement of which managers are aware, and it has been suggested as a model for others. However, it has come to my attention that a formal declaration should be made to the Trust, and this I now do.         | Feb-17           |
| BARNACLE, Alex          | Consultant Paediatric Radiologist   | I have practising privileges at the Portland Hospital for Women and Children.
